Cameron Hopeful Shortcut Can Be Reopened Shortly

Prospects that the Brockway shortcut between Truckee and Kings Beach may be opened for traffic in the immediate future was seen following a visit of Senator Ronald G. Cameron to the area this week.

Cameron, who made an inspection of the shortcut as well as the highway between Tahoe City and Kings Beach, also under construction, said he was hopeful of obtaining emergency funds which will permit building a detour on the shortcut.

"I cannot make any promise," Cameron told the Sierra Sun, "but things look hopeful for obtaining the necessary emergency money for a passable detour soon."

Under the contract the contractor, George E. Miller of Reno submitted a bid which provided that the road be closed during the period of construction. The state earlier declined to furnish the additional money for the detour, but Cameron said he would do everything possible to have the route opened in the near future.

He also said he had gained assurance from the Madonna Construction Company, doing the work on the Tahoe City, Kings Beach route to keep the route open and as smooth as possible.

Cameron also visited the new Donner Memorial State Park museum project and expressed approval of the progress being made.

All-Star Leaguers Lose To Rocklin 9

The Rocklin Little Leaguers defeated the Tahoe Truckee All Stars 8 to 6 in a close game Thursday.

The local team was on the verge of winning until Rocklin loaded the bases in the last of the fifth and the next batter slammed one over the fence, putting them ahead by two runs. The Rocklin pitcher after striking out the pinch hitter, Monte Straub of Truckee, retired the side.

The game was well played by both sides and the spirit was high. It was hot in the valley and this may have affected the mountain boys from this area.

After the game, the All Stars were guests of the City of Auburn for a dinner.

Monday the Tahoe City team defeated Truckee 8 to 0 with the Truckee Minors going down to a 18 to 3 defeat.

A meeting has been called for 7:30 p. m. August 4 at Hilltop Lodge for the purpose of discussing the formation of a Truckee-Donner Horsemen's Association.

One proposed project, Sampson said, will be to make a trek from Nevada to Donner Park next summer to start off a program in commemoration of the Donner Party. The possibility of a rodeo will also be studied, he said.

16 Cent Tax Raise Is Seen As Board Trims Many Items

There will be an approximate increase of 16 cents in the basic tax rate for Nevada County this year.

This was reported by Supervisor H. G. Loehr who said that by dipping into the county's "rainy day" fund for $70,000, half of the $140,000 invested in savings bonds and earmarking $70,000 of the $81,000 in lieu motor vehicle tax revenues, usually allocated to the road department, the board was able to reduce the estimated tax from 50 cents to 16 cents increase.

This will make the 1961-62 rate $2.24 instead of $2.08, the rate last year.

The rate is based on an estimated expenditure for the year of $3,272,434.62, Loehr said.

The rate will not be fixed until next month, but at Monday's meeting the supervisors trimmed every corner to keep the rate as near as possible to the current tax.

The basic rate of $2.24, if finally established, will have no bearing on the various district and special taxes for the local area.

Local Teachers In Small Boat Reach Hawaii In Safety

Fears for the safety of three well known local people who crossed the Pacific to Hawaii in a 23-foot sail boat, were eliminated Tuesday when a call was received announcing their safe arrival at Hilo.

The three, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Dewhurst and Joor Bol, left San Francisco June 23 aboard their craft, the Lai Lai, with provisions for the trip but with a radio good for only a distance of 50 miles.

The boat was overdue, according to schedule, last week and some fears were felt for the crew's safety. However, Tuesday Bol called William Goodhue, who is occupying the former's home at Tahoe and announced a good voyage and safe landing.

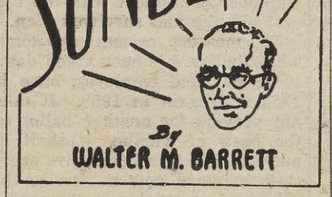
SUNBEAMS



By WALTER M. BARRETT

While the exact location of the new Donner Memorial State Park's Emigrant Trail museum may not suit everyone, it must be admitted that the new $200,000 structure, now under construction, will be a valuable asset to the community. It is something to which we can point with pride and a facility which will attract thousands of visitors to our area. This museum is not being built by chance—it took a lot of hard work by our past and present state legislators and other state officials to secure the funds and bring about the start of construction. This week our bouquet goes to these people for the job they have done. We admit that a better location than the one finally selected by the division of beaches and parks was possible, but we feel that this was no fault of the sponsors and we should be thankful that we are to be endowed with a fine new facility and certainly a community asset worthy of note.

Terry, accompanied by a friend, Eugene H. Dugger also of San Jose and the latter's girl friend, Lillian M. Kohler of San Francisco, had been traveling about the country and had spent Saturday boating and water skiing in Napa County. They drove to Donner Lake to complete the outing.

They stopped their car just east of Donner Lake Lodge and Terry decided to cool off by taking a dip in the inviting water. He swam 20 or 25 feet from the shore and disappeared from sight.

Dugger, unable to swim, tried unsuccessfully to get aid and finally called the highway patrol. Deputies Sheriff Roy Waters and Leo Zander, who were on duty rushed to the scene with the Truckee Ambulance and H. L. Owens, assistant chief, the later manning the fire department's resuscitator.

After vain attempts to revive the victim he taken to the Tahoe Forest Hospital where he was pronounced dead.

A bit of heroism was injected into the picture when Larry Mitchell, Jr., 15 year old nephew of Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Verdi of Donner Lake leaped into the chill water, fully clothed to bring the body of Terry to shore. The body was in 10 feet of water.

Two Small Fires In Area Extinguished With No Damage

Two small fires, one potentially dangerous and the other isolated in the old Donner Ridge burn near Prosser Creek, were extinguished this week without material damage.

The most dangerous fire, across the road from the Truckee elementary school, Monday at 1:30 p. m. was apparently started by someone tossing a burning cigarette into the dry grass beside the road. Mrs. Ermin Hintz was notified by two young boys and immediately turned in the alarm, with both the Truckee Volunteer Fire Department and the forest service responding immediately.

A forest service helicopter was dispatched to run down a car from which witnesses had seen a cigarette tossed earlier, but the suspects could not be placed near the scene and were released.

The second fire last Friday was discovered by Max Meadows of the forest service burning in an old snag near Prosser Creek. A bulldozer was summoned and quickly put the fire out. It had evidently resulted from a "sleeper" lightning stroke ten days earlier.

A patrol is being maintained on the big Boca fire to prevent any outbreak but District Ranger Roy Saarni said it was completely controlled Tuesday.

The regular meeting of the board of trustees of the Tahoe Truckee Unified School District has been advanced from August 8 to August 1 at 8 p. m. because of the necessity of holding the public hearing on the proposed budget.

Superintendent John S. Corbin pointed out that the hearing must be held between August 1 and 7.

It calls for a total expenditure for the year of $1,152,253.91 compared to last year's total of $1,093,276.85, and a tax rate of $1.83.

The largest single item on the budget is for instruction, $578,100 being required for this, an increase over last year's total of $457,642.11.

Another major item is for buildings with a total of $25,000 being requested for additions to schools of the district.

The operation of the school plant will require $128,000, while the maintenance of the schools will cost $31,000.

RENO—Harry Causey of Truckee, grabbed the lead on the 21st lap of the 30-lap main event and held on to take his fourth main-event win of the 1961 Reno Stock Car Association races at Reno last Saturday night.

Causey was one of five leaders in the race. Red Harris of Truckee, the "hard luck" driver in main events led for 13 laps in the main event before blowing a tire and being forced out of competition. Other leaders were Bob Baker, leading point winner in the association to date, Don Ohnstad, and Bob Winchell.

In the challenge race Bill Aten retained his winner's spot, battling off challenger Ron Gautsche of Truckee. Bob Baker has been named as next week's challenger, and will meet Aten for honors then.

Several crashes took place during the evening's races. Probably the most spectacular was in the third heat race when John Zimdars and Bob Winchell locked bumpers and the momentum of the two autos interlocking caused car 26 and Zimdars to roll over. This is the second consecutive week that Zimdars has rolled his car.

There also was a three-car race in the fourth heat involving Causey, Gautsche and Jerry Marks. The crash occurred as Marks was making a bid for the lead. All three autos were forced out of competition for the remainder of the race, although all returned later in the evening.

AFFAIRS OF STATE

by Henry C. MacArthur

SACRAMENTO — (CNS)— Whether Governor Edmund G. Brown has signed legislation which in effect will eliminate the state retirement system for employes can't be determined for another 30 years, but a lot of state employes feel his signature on AB 873 will have just that effect.

The bill, one of the most controversial in the 1961 legislative session, and the one on which the governor said he received more mail and telephone calls than any other, provides for merging state employee retirement with the federal old age and survivors plan.

The measure, or measures somewhat similar, has been voted down twice by state employes, once in 1955 and again in 1959. It does not provide for another ballot on the basis of whether it shall be put into effect, but does give every state employe now in service the choice of continuing in the retirement system, or joining present retirement benefits with the social security system.

The California State Employes Association was dead set against the bill. The association feels that eventually, association with federal social security will militate against the benefits to state employes.

On the other hand, the governor said the state employes' retirement system, which is different than the association and operated by the state itself, the state personnel board and the department of finance, were all in favor of the measure.

The bill originally was proposed by a group of state employes and labor union members who work for the state.

Next November, state employes will be required to determine whether they individually want to continue in the state retirement plan alone, or join up with social security. Either way, some will benefit, and some will lose. The computations are complicated, and each employe is expected to select the procedure which will benefit him most.

This may seem like a fair plan, for as the governor said, "it will help thousands of state employes and harm none." This refers, of course, to those persons who already are in state employment.

But as opponents pointed out, the measure requires every new state employe to go into both systems, and it is this provision that has caused the fear the state system eventually will give way to the federal plan, which would be accomplished by the natural turnover through a cycle of years.

One thing a federal plan will halt is the practice of some state employes to use the retirement fund as a savings bank. When a state employe leaves his job, he is entitled to withdraw his contributions and leave the retirement system. If he returns to state service, he may either deposit the amount he withdrew and continue at the same rate as when he entered the service, or he may start all over again at a higher rate, based on age.

Under the federal plan, savings accumulated can't be withdrawn. This will apply under the new law in proportion to the amount deposited with the state and the federal plan, as the state will continue to refund. But in any event, the combined plan will cost the taxpayers more money.

LAND WITHDRAWAL IN FOREST IS PLAN

Plans to withdraw 119 acres of federal land in the Tahoe National Forest from location and entry under the general mining laws were disclosed by management in Sacramento.

Walter E. Beck, manager of the land office, reported the withdrawal application was filed by the secretary of agriculture.

The national forest service, according to Beck, intends to use the land for the Kaspian recreation area and Indian Valley campground annex.

He said a detailed description of the lands will appear soon in the federal register and will be posted in the land office in Sacramento; in the post offices in Tahoe City and Kings Beach, Auburn, Quincy, Downieville, Alleghany, Nevada City and Sacramento, and in the offices of the Placer County recorder in Auburn and Plumas County recorder in Quincy.

LEAKE SAYS TIME IS LONG OVERDUE FOR NEW FOREIGN PLAN

PETALUMA — Paul Leake, publisher of Woodland and third district member of the state board of equalization, told the Petaluma Rotarians that "the time is long overdue for the overhaul proposed by President Kennedy for the administration of the foreign aid program."

"Let us remember this: America is not God Almighty—there is a limit to our capacity and responsibility. We cannot run this world—and, more important, the world does not want to be run by either by the United States or by Russia."

Under both political parties, the administration of $86 billion for foreign aid has been "inept and wasteful," charges Leake.

"Our plows and tractors rust in Ethiopia," he reported." "We gave refrigerators to the Eskimos. In Iran, Uncle Sam erected a sugar beet refinery and built a sawmill. The refinery would be useful if the Iranians raised sugar beets. The sawmill has never been operated, teak timber being too hard."

Leake cited Iran as a "classic example of our foolish harvest. A key ally of the west, it is now broke and shaky after receiving $1 billion in U. S. aid. Iran has the jitters. Inflation, street riots and unrest are among the problems faced by the Shah."

The editor declared that the U. S. spent $39½ in Afghanistan for two power dams but they have yet to light a single electric globe. "The costly airfields there are the last word in decor—but travel by camel-back is till the fashion," he added.

Reconstruction of a highway in Vietnam was to cost the U. S. $18 million, "but the final cost zoomed to $32 million," he said. "With bridges, the total outlay will skyrocket to $100 million."

Leake reminded the Rotarians that "from 1952 to 1960, Korea received nearly $3 billion in economic aid. The overthrow of the Syngman Rhee regime exposed a sordid picture of graft."

He reported that "in southeast Asia, highways to nowhere have been built by the U. S. in lands where beasts still provide most of the transportation. We gave $300 million to Laos—which proved too weak to defeat the Communist rebels.

"Our worst blunder was giving Russia $11 billion. . What did we get in return but vicious hatred and a sneering toast from Krushchev?"

"President Kennedy," he said. "insists that economic aid must be matched by the efforts and sacrifices of the recipients. This is logical and right."

According to Leake, in the last 15 years the U. S. has spent, loaned or given away more for foreign aid than our government spent for all purposes during the first 137 years after George Washington. "Today we are siphoning funds and manpower to 77 different countries," he said.

He assured the Rotarians that he was "not proposing a return to Fortress America—that day is past. A program of aid to underdeveloped nations must continue if only for our own selfish interests and for self-preservation. But let us start afresh. Only the most stubbornly blind idealist will fail to recognize that the U. S. has been 'taken'—and not always by our enemies.

"Our principal concern is the effectiveness of the program. If it accomplished the objectives, the money is of secondary importance."

WHEREAS, the Board of Directors of Donner Summit Public Utility District did heretofore, on the 6th day of December, 1960, duly pass and adopt its Resolution No. 60-3, determining that public interest and necessity demand the acquisition, construction and completion of utility works and facilities and expansion and improvement in the water collection and distribution facilities of the District, and the improvement of the condition of water, extension and expansion of water lines, the additional related facilities and appurtenances, and thereafter to duly cause plans and specifications, estimates of cost of acquisition, construction and completion of said utility works, facilities and improvements and additions, and the estimates of revenue to be derived therefrom as supplemented to be prepared, filed and approved by this Board of Directors, and determine that the cost thereof, including costs incidental thereto or connected therewith, engineering, inspection and legal fees, costs of bond election and bond issuance, bond interest to accrue during construction and for a period not exceeding twelve (12) months after completion of construction, so far exceeds the operating revenues of the District, in addition to its other necessary expenses, as to render it necessary to incur a bonded indebtedness therefor; and further duly formulated a proposition for submission to the electors of said District of incurring a bonded indebtedness for financing the acquisition, construction and completion of the foregoing utility works and facilities and addition and improvements thereto, and the payment of the costs, fees, charges and interest specified above:

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT ENACTED by the Board of Directors of Donner Summit Public Utility District as Follows:

PROPOSITION: Shall Donner Summit Public Utility District incur a general obligation bonded indebtedness, in the amount of $70,000.00, bearing interest at a rate not to exceed six per cent per annum, payable annually, the first year, and semi-annually thereafter, to finance and pay the costs of acquisition, construction, and completion of water works, utilities and facilities, and additions, improvements, and modifications to facilities and works for the collection, transportation, and distribution of water, the extension of certain water lines, and addition of related facilities and appurtenances, together with lands, easements, rights of way, property or structures necessary or convenient thereto, and the payment of costs incidental thereto, or connected therewith, including engineering, inspection and legal fees, costs of bond election and bond issuance, bond interest estimated to accrue during construction, and for a period not to exceed twelve months after completion of construction?

Section 2: That the estimated cost of the acquisition, construction and completion by said District of the water works, utilities and additions, improvements and modifications to the facilities and works, for collection and transportation and distribution of water, the extension of certain water lines, and addition of related facilities and appurtenances connected therewith, including costs incidental thereto, engineering, and legal fees, cost of bond election and bond issuance and of bond interest to accrue during construction and for a period of not to exceed twelve (12) months after completion of construction, as set forth in said Proposition, is Seventy Thousand Dollars ($70,000.00).

Section 3: That the proposed method and manner of payment for the acquisition, construction and completion of the proposed utility works, facilities, additions, improvements, and modifications, including other fees, charges, costs and accruing interest as noted above, is from the proceeds of sale of said bonds of said District to be issued if said bonds in the amount set forth in said Proposition are duly authorized by the affirmative vote of at least two-thirds of the electors voting at said special election upon the proposition for the issuance of said bonds as set forth in Section 1 hereof.

Section 4: That the sum of $70,000.00 is the amount of bonded indebtedness necessary to finance and pay for the acquisition, construction and completion of the water works, utilities, facilities and additions, improvements and modifications to said facilities and works as hereinabove provided, including other costs, fees and charges and interest noted above, and as specified in the Proposition set forth in Section 1 hereof, and the rate of interest to be paid on said bonds shall not exceed six per cent (6%) per annum. Said bonds shall be known as:

ANTLERLESS HUNTS MAY BE REDUCED

SACRAMENTO — (CNS) — The department of fish and game proposals for antlerless deer hunts this year may be cut by more than 30 per cent as the result of adverse reactions in northeastern California.

The state fish and game commission meets in Sacramento July 31 to consider the 38 hunts proposed. They would be for a total of 18, 480 permits.

Last year, 35 hunts, with 15,075 permits, were held.

Under the rather complicated procedure for special hunts, the department of fish and game screens recommendations from its regional deer managers, then makes its recommendations to the commission. Where public opinion seems to be against special hunts, the department usually does not recommend them.

WATE RAGENCY HITS SNAG WITH PROJECT

SACRAMENTO — (CNS) — The Placer County water agency has run into possible trouble and a certain delay on its $140 million water development project on the upper American River.

The California water commission had scheduled a hearing on the agency's applications for assignment of rights to 400,000 acre feet of water a year for Thursday. On the day prior to the hearing, a letter of protest was received from the U. S. Bureau of Reclamation.

The bureau said there were "several areas of conflict" between the Placer County proect and its Auburn dam. It asked that hearings on the Placer County applications be postponed until the bureau could present its case.

The conflicts apparently stem from the Placer County plans to divert up to 100,000 acre feet of water from the north fork of the American out of the watershed and into the agricultural area. This would reduce the supply of water available for the Bureau's Folsom South Canal project, as well as cutting water for a power supply at Auburn dam.

The commission heard the Placer County presentation and indicated it would call a hearing in 60 days to consider the bureau's request. Earlier, it had notified the bureau no hearing would be held until the bureau had an authorized project. The Auburn dam project authorization is before congress but it was believed no authorization bills were to be heard at this session.

The possible hearing of the bureau's request could mean a sizeable delay in the Placer County project. A $140 million bond issue was approved by the county voters in June by a 25-1 margin.

CIVIL AIR PATROL DAY IS URGED BY JOHNSON

WASHINGTON, D. C. — Congressman Harold T. (Bizz) Johnson of the 2nd, mountain-valley, district has urged the congress to proclaim December 1, 1961 as Civil Air Patrol Day.

"Recognition of the great contributions the Civil Air Patrol has made in the 20 years since its founding at the start of World War II, is most appropriate," Congressman Johnson said. "The Civil Air Patrol first was created as a vital civilian arm of our national defense structure.

"Civil Air Patrol pilots, manning light planes, served valiantly along the coastal regions on anti-submarine patrols. These missions freed much needed military airmen and planes from home front duties and allowed them to press forward in our effort to defeat aggression on both sides of the world.

"After the war, the Civilian Air Patrol continued its emergency service, concentrating on search and rescue work and also commenced the important job of training young cadets in aviation education and good citizenship."

Congressman Johnson also urged that the post office department recognize the great contributions by the issuance of a commemorative stamp in honor of the Civil Air Patrol.

Northern California has mobilized an unprecedented organization of 6,000 men and equipment to fight forest fires this year; help them by being careful with fire wherever you are.

American farmers utilize 24 billion kwh of electricity annually, about five per cent of the nation's total output.

PAST EFFORTS SEEN IN NEGOTIATIONS ON CURRENT RIVER ROW

In negotiations over the waters of the Truckee River system and the efforts of the California Commission members of the California-Nevada Interstate Water Compact Commission to protect and enhance the fishing conditions of this stream, data relative to past efforts along this line comes to light.

It shows that even as early as 1870, when Lake Tahoe was then known as Lake Bigler, the people of the state were concerned in such matters, said Cecil Edmunds, Nevada and Sierra County's representative on the commission.

On April 4, 1870, said Edmunds, the legislature of the state passed an act; Section 1 of which reads as follows: "The Donner Lumber and Boom Company is hereby authorized and empowered to improve, at its own expense, the channel of the Truckee River, from its source to the eastern boundary line of the state of California, by removing the rocks, boulders, gravel and timbers therefrom, and by erecting floodgates at the outlet of the lake and along the channel of said river, not more than five feet in height, so as to render it practicalble to float saw logs, lumber and wood down said channel to said town of Truckee."

Sections 2, 3 and 4 relate to the monies to be spent on the dam, stream improvements and the tolls and compensation to be charged by the company for transporting logs, timber and wood down to Truckee.

Section 5 provides for the preservation of the fish and the penalties for not so doing in these words: 'The dams and floodgates herein authorized to be constructed shall each, when constructed, contain a fishway or fish ladder, so that fish can readily pass up the stream for the purpose of depositing their spawn. Said fishways or fish ladders shall be kept by the proprietors of this franchise in constant repair; and should, from any cause, the fishway or ladder be out of repair, so that the fish cannot pass up the stream, then during all the period that said fishway or fish ladders shall be out of repair, said company shall not be authorized to collect tolls for any lumber or timber that may be floated down the river.

"Should the fishways or fish ladders be permitted to remain for three months in a condition so that fish cannot pass up stream, then upon complaint of any citizen, and proof of the fact to the board of supervisors of Placer County, said board of supervisors shall declare the franchise forfeited to the state; whereupon, the right of said company to collect tolls shall cease; provided, that this act shall not be so construed as to prevent the appropriation of the waters of Lake Bigler or Truckee River for manufacturing, irrigating, domestic or mining purposes, in such manner as not to decrease the supply of water in said river below the quantity necessary to carry into effect the provisions of this act, nor to interfere with the use of the channel of said river for the purposes herein granted to the company named in this act."

Sometime in the later years, continued Edmunds, the people have failed to exercise the same concern, for we now find dams along the stream system that do not conform to the above conditions set forth and fish can no longer migrate up the Truckee River or some of its tributaries.

The members of the California commission, Edmunds stated, are hopeful that increased stream flow can be provided under the compact terms that will again make the Truckee River, as famous for its fine trout fishing as it was in the "Good Old Days."

WORK IS STARTED ON HIGHWAY IN SIERRA

Work has started on the resurfacing of a two-and-three-quarters-mile section of State Sign Route 49 between Sierraville and Loyalton in Sierra County, according to state highway officials at the Marysville district office.

The project, under a $118,500 contract with Souza Bros. of Yuba City, starts 5.1 miles north of Sierraville and extends to 7.9 miles north. A two-inch layer of asphalt concrete over a lime-treated base will give added structural strength and improve riding qualities.

For the next several weeks traffic will be routed over a detour adjacent to the highway under one-way control during working hours. Two-way traffic will be in effect at all other times including weekends and legal holidays. The entire project is expected to be completed in September.

LOADS CHANGE AUTO LIGHTS, SAYS PATROL

The California Highway Patrol suggests to vacationing motorists who are carrying camping equipment in their vehicles or are pulling heavy trailers to be sure their headlights are still in alignment.

"Extra weight in the back of station wagons, in pickup trucks trucks equipped with living quarters, and even in family sedans can tilt the front end of the car enough to raise the headlights to an illegal position," CHP Commissioner Bradford M. Crittenden declared.

Crittenden said headlights must be strong enough to light the road so that a person or vehicle can be seen for a distance of 100 feet when the low beam is used and 350 feet when the high beam is used. But they must not blind an oncoming driver under any conditions.

"Headlights that are tilted upward because the rear of the vehicle has been lowered by extra weight can blind oncoming drivers and thus be illegal," he said. "This problem can be eliminated by having the lights aligned while the vehicle is loaded and ready for the vacation trip."

BOCA RESERVOIR IS CREDITED IN SAVING DAY FOR NEVADA

RENO—Remember all the talk about the Truckee River going dry this year?

Well, it hasn't happened yet and it may not happen at all. One reason for the refreshing flow through Reno is Boca Reservoir operated by the Washoe County Water Conservation District.

Boca in the days before the dam was built was best known for its ice, naturally made from pure mountain water, and its beer, also naturally made from pure mountain water.

In 1961 it's little known, but Boca Dam is one major reason for the flow of water in the river, C. C. (Dick) Taylor, district engineer, said.

Some people scoffed when the dam for the 40,000 acre foot reservoir was constructed and placed in use about 20 years ago. Others professed lack of interest.

But Boca water has helped the first cut of hay this year, will assure a good wetting for the second cut and is supplying additional water for use outside Truckee Meadows, Taylor said.

Taylor reasons that there isn't much use looking for a third good hay cut this year, but then there have been many years like that.

Boca Reservoir picked up storage from May 1 through June 25. On the latter date the gates were opened. Flow has picked up from 50 second feet to the present 225 feet. Measured at Farad, Boca is supplying water to the Truckee River at a greater rate than all other upstream sources combined.

Boca storage for 1961 reached a maximum of 27,800 acre feet, less than capacity but more that predicted through early season snow surveys.

Taylor said there's no reason why the river flow, supported by stored water from Boca, shouldn't remain "up" until mid-August.

Even with irrigation in full swing in Truckee Meadows the return flow at Vista is slightly greater than that being released today from Boca.

Boca Dam is in California and is closer to Truckee than Reno.

OLD '502' REFERENCE IS NO LONGER IN LAW

SACRAMENTO—(CNS) — Governor Edmund G. Brown has decided that unlike a rose, a drunk, by any other name would not smell as sweet.

Brown disagreed in this case with William Shakespeare. He vetoed a bill which would have permitted a drunk driver, or violator of Section 23102 of the Motor Vehicle code to be called by the old title, a "502."

Brown said he vetoed AB1946 by Assemblyman John A. O'Connell, San Francisco, because he thought it would cause confusion.

O'Connell said everyone knew a drunk driver as a "502" and it was too cumbersome for a radio dispatcher to have to send officers out to pick up a "23102."

Tennis Tournament

SQUAW VALLEY — Don Hamilton and Dicky Johnson of Squaw Valley teamed up Sunday to defeat Elise Diepenbruck, Berlin, Germany and Peter Klaussen, Squaw Valley, in the Squaw Valley Pro's Handicap mixed doubles tennis tournament, 6-3, 6-8, 6-4.

Mrs. Zella Mortimer of Tahoe City has as her house guests Myrtle Reed of Oakland and Mary Funnell of Cleveland, Ohio. The latter will remain here until late fall.

Maybe you want to see the Phillipines, but you ought to attend the Placer County Fair first—Dates are July 26-30. Beverly Gunkle, Tahoe Vista, who was Miss Placer County at the show a year ago, inspects one of 250 travel posters to be shown in a novel exhibit, with entries from all of the major nations on earth—including Russia. Grounds are located at the edge of Roseville on Highway 99E.

TAHOE SHORELINE IS INCLUDED FOR STUDY

WASHINGTON — Senator Alan Bible was instrumental this week in having Lake Tahoe included as one of the shoreline areas to be considered by preservation for the use and benefit of the general public under terms of a bill introduced in the senate.

As one of the sponsors of a measure which calls upon the secretaries of the interior and agriculture to establish state-administered shoreline recreational areas, Senator Bible pointed out that unless some type of action is taken "the natural beauty and attraction of the entire Lake Tahoe area might be despoiled by private encroachment."

The measure authorizes the secretary of the interior to make a study and investigation to determine what further action should be taken to save and preserve various shoreline areas in the United States for the benefit of the public.

According to the bill, the interior and agriculture secretaries are required to submit within two years a report to congress, including recommendations on legislation that will be required to facilitate the purchase of shoreline areas for recreational purposes, in cooperation with state authorities.

Provisions are made for the government to pay to states half the purchase price of any area acquired by a state for a shoreline recreational grea.

SEWAGE SURVEY AT TAHOE IS APPROVED

AL TAHOE—Steps to initiate a comprehensive engineering and scientific survey to determine how the waters of famed Lake Tahoe can be saved from the threat of future sewage pollution will be taken this week by the Lake Tahoe Area Council, according to an announcement by B. E. Lowe of Reno, council president.

Lowe's statement was made following a meeting of the LTAC board of directors and its acceptance of a special fund grant to finance the study from the Max C. Fleischmann Foundation of Nevada.

Described by a pollution control expert as "one of the most challenging problems ever faced by sanitation engineers," the Tahoe study will be directed by a board of consultants comprised of leading pollution control authorities in the United States.

The "Miss Liberty" design of the United States nickel was released in 1883.

SPEAKER TELLS CLUB OF ALASKA ECONOMY

TAHOE CITY—Charles Smith of Anchorage, Alaska, speaking at a recent meeting of the Rotary Club of Tahoe City at Tahoe Inn, gave some of the highlights of the 49th state. He said Alaska has a population of 226,000 and is government financed by defense installations. It is also a labor union state where government defense agencies have not, in the past, disputed union demands for increased wages and living costs are much higher than in the 48 states.

Smith said housing is twice as much and living costs in general, are 50 per cent higher. The working season is from four to five months and craftsmen live on unemployment compensation the balance of the time, or until about May 1 the next year.

About fishing, the speaker said, you can't drop a hook into a lake or stream and expect to catch a fish, despite rumors to the contrary but, if you fly miles to inland lakes and rivers, excellent fishing can be expected. Mining, he said, is a dead enterprise in Alaska. Basil Kehoe, introduced the speaker.

The meeting on July 18 was attended by 25 members, four guests and 30 visiting Rotarians.

Gordon Moyer, presiding, announced that the August 1 luncheon meeting will be at Camp Noel Porter in the Outdoor Chapel grounds.

NEVADA COUNTY HAS RETAIL SALES DROP

SACRAMENTO—(CNS) — Retail sales in California during the first quarter of 1961—said by many to be the bottom of the recession—presented a strange pattern of huge increases over 1960 in some counties and big declines in sales in others.

But the overall picture of the quarter was a drop of 1.6 per cent from the first quarter of 1960. Sales subject to the state's 3 per cent sales tax totaled $5, 320,043,000 during the quarter.

In Nevada County, taxable transactions during the January-March quarter totaled $4,825,000, which produced $144,750 in sales tax. This tax, amounting to .09 per cent of the total for the state, represented a loss of 9 per cent from the first quarter of 1960.

Gordan Ashbee, of Bakersfield, former council commissioner, unveiling ceremony led by Council Commissioner Emile Morris of Colfax. JACK BENNY STARS AT TAHOE HARRAH

Jack Benny, the world's only 39-year-old man born in 1894, will be the star of Tahoe Harrah's South Shore Room July 20-August 2 in his only nightclub appearance of 1961.

Kept busy by television commitments, Benny has taken time out for only one nitery engagement a year in the last two years, and for both 1960 and 1961 he has picked Tahoe Harrah's from numerous offers.

The comedian who is a legend in his own lifetime staged a highly successful show in the South Shore Room last year. One of the many newspaper columnists who attended reported "the applause at the end of the show was deafening, my share of it included" and noted that a Benny performance is "clean fun and there are always new stories and new people to enjoy."
